
5th FEBRUARY, 1805.

Read the first and second time, and committed to a committee of the whole House, to-morrow.

A BILL,

For the relief of Edward Toppan, George Jenkins and William Currier.

1 Be it enacted, by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That 3 the Collector of the customs for the district of Newburyport, in 4 the state of Massachusetts, shall be, and he hereby is autho-
5 rised and directed to allow to Edward Toppan, George Jenkins,
6 and William Currier, the drawback of duties upon merchandize
7 exported from said port to New Orleans, in the brig Five Sisters,
8 amounting to six hundred, seventy two dollars and thirty nine
9 cents, agreeably to a debenture certificate issued by the said
10 Collector on the sixth day of December, in the year one thousand 11 eight hundred and three. Provided, the inward duties on the 12 said merchandize shall have been first paid, and that it shall 13 appear to the satisfaction of the Collector that the merchandize
14 was actually landed in New Orleans.
